Lighting of the Altar Candles			*Hymn 833	“O Love That Wilt Not Let Me Go”
Welcome
*Call to Worship		from Psalm 51	Ash Wednesday Reading: “Rend Your Heart” by Jan Richardson
	Create in me a clean heart, O God. And renew a right spirit within me. Do not cast me away from your presence. And do not take your holy spirit from me. The sacrifice acceptable to God is a broken spirit; A broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.		Imposition of Ashes	You are invited to come forward to receive ashes. You may ask that the ashes be placed on your hand instead of your forehead, if you so desire. The ashes remind us that, even though our body is mortal, our soul belongs to Jesus Christ.
*Hymn 415		“Come, Ye Sinners, Poor and Needy”	Prayer for the Lenten Journey
Prayer of Confession	Help us, O Lord, to be honest with ourselves and with you. We come before you with hearts that long for healing and minds that seek meaning for our days. Examine us and all of our ways. Keep us from the self-delusions that overlook our sin and ignore our tendency to justify our impure thoughts and behaviors. Help us let go of our past, that we may turn toward you and live again the life of faith. Help us set aside our guilt and enter a season of healing. Release the grip of sin and death so that we might experience the joy of truly abundant life. (silent prayer)		Hymn 544 (x3, third time acapella)	“Bless the Lord”
			*Benediction
			*Extinguishing the Altar Candles
			*Postlude	“Alas, and Did My Savior Bleed” arr. Forrest
Assurance of Pardon
*Hymn 435		“There’s a Wideness in God’s Mercy”
Scripture Reading	Joel 2:12-13 (p.832)	Rev. Dennis Slack
	Matthew 6:1-6, 16-21 (p. 883)
	Friends, this is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

"Rend Your Heart" by Jan Richardson

To receive this blessing,
all you have to do is let your heart break.
Let it crack open.
Let it fall apart so that you can see its secret chambers,
the hidden spaces where you have hesitated to go.

Your entire life is here, inscribed whole upon your heart's walls:
every path taken or left behind,
every face you turned toward or turned away,
every word spoken in love or in rage,
every line of your life you would prefer to leave in shadow, every story that shimmers with treasures known and those you have yet to find.

It could take you days to wander these rooms.
Forty, at least.

And so let this be a season for wandering for trusting the breaking for tracing the tear that will return you to the One who waits

who watches
who works within the rending
to make your heart
whole.

"Is not this the fast that I choose:
to loose the bonds of injustice,
to undo the straps of the yoke, to let the
oppressed go free,
and to break
every yoke?"
